Dixon Telegraph Sixtieth Year

DIXON ILLINOIS, FRIDAY JANUARY 26 1912.

Daily Twenty-Eighth Year No. 22

AWARDS ANNOUNCED FOR POULTRY SHOW

GREAT VARIETY OF BIRDS AND ALL ARE IN EXCELLENT CONDITION.

SHOW CLOSES SATURDAY NIGHT

Judge Rhodes Talks of Great Benefit of Show in Improving Stock.

Mr. Chanticleer and his many-hued Seraglio came in for many comments by the large number of persons who attended the poultry show last evening at Rosbrook hall. The lusty crows of his Majesty mingled with the cackle of the hens in a cadence fairly drowned the chatter of the crowds. The hall presents a gala appearance as the ribbons of various colors flutter from the front of the coops containing the prize winners.

At 8:30 o'clock Judge Rhodes gave a half-hour talk on the raising and selecting of birds for the show room. He paid a high compliment to the high class of fowls raised in this locality exhibited at the show and said that they would demand a place among the prize winners in many of the large shows. He spoke of the benefit that there was in poultry shows conducted along proper lines to the raiser of poultry as well as the public in general and that they were worthy of all encouragement possible. He stated that this was the first show he had ever been called upon to act as judge and that he had certainly had a very pleasant stay in Dixon, and that the treatment received from all whom he had met had been most cordial.

At the conclusion of his talk the door prizes were given away. The tri-angle chicken coop, donated by the Tri-Angle Mfg. Co. of Freeport, was awarded to A. L. Myers. The handsome azalia plant from Florist N. H. Long went to Miss Breed while the box of cigars was awarded to Emil Schertner. This evening a tri-angle coop will be given away as first award, 3 lbs. Batavia coffee as second prize, $1.75 horse blanket as third prize, and a White Plymouth Rock hen as fourth prize. The show will close on Saturday night.

List of Awards.

The awards as made at the show held in Dixon, Ill., the week of Jan. 22 to 27, by Judge C. H. Rhodes of Topeka, Kas., were as follows:

DIXON Y. M. C. A. SETS DATE FOR RALLY

WEEK OF MARCH 17-24 INTERESTS WILL BE PUSHED BY NEWS ITEMS.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Y. M. C. A. last evening it was decided to make the week of March 17-24 Y. M. C. A. Week in Dixon and during that time a great rally in the association will be conducted. The board members will call on the business and professional men to secure their annual contributions toward the association, there will be some social features at the building every evening, the Men's club will hold a banquet one evening and the week will be started with special Sunday afternoon rally meeting.

Bowling Tonight.
There will be no features in the gym tonight because of the high school basketball games, but the bowling alley will be busy with the meeting of the Presbyterian and the Methodist teams of the church league. Next Friday evening it is hoped to have a big night in the gym, with wrestling, apparatus work, games, etc.

TWO GAMES TONIGHT AT HIGH SCHOOL

ROCHELLE AND BYRON TEAMS HERE TO PLAY THE LOCALS.

This evening at the high school gymnasium two basketball games which should be of more than ordinary interest and merit will be played by the boys' and girls' teams of the local school and the Rochelle boys team and Byron girls' team. The Byron girls, who play a remarkably fast game of basketball, recently defeated the local young ladies in a fast game at Byron, which the vanquished have not forgotten and which they hope to average tonight. They have worked hard for the game and promise a better showing than the last time the two teams met. The game between the boys' teams will also be a hot contest and lovers of the sport will be assured of an evening of great sport. Following the games the sophomore class will entertain with a dancing party at the armory.

CHICKEN FIGHTERS BADLY FRIGHTENED

TRYING EVERY MEANS TO KEEP THEIR NAMES FROM BEING PUBLISHED.

Sterling, Jan. 26.—J. E. Mammen, against whom a warrant was sworn out by Chief of Police Haglock several days ago for selling liquor on Sunday, appeared before Justice I. L. Weaver Wednesday and pleaded guilty. Mayor McDonald and City Attorney Sheldon were present with the chief of police and upon their recommendation the fine was made the minimum, $25 and costs. This was Mammen's first offense and it is believed he was the victim of circumstances, to a large extent.

Chicken Fighters Busy.
It is understood that the chicken fight at Mineral Springs park a few weeks ago had much to do with Mammen's plea of guilty. The saloonist had determined to fight the case, when it was learned that a number of the chicken fighters would be subpoenaed as witnesses and that considerable light would be shed on the bloodthirsty chicken fight which even the fighters admit was disgraceful. As a result it is asserted that Mammen was interviewed by some half dozen lighters who offered to do anything within reason if he would not fight the case and thus force them to appear as witnesses.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—Rain or snow and warmer today; probably cloudy tomorrow and colder at night; moderate to brisk southeast to south winds.

PHILLIPS CASE HAS BEEN SETTLED

CIRCUIT COURT TAKES UP HARMON AND MARION DRAINAGE CASE.

In the circuit court this morning the separate maintenance suit of Mrs. Minerva Phillips against her husband, Alonzo E. Phillips, was called for trial. Brooks & Brooks appeared for Mrs. Phillips while Attorneys Erwin and Devine conducted Mr. Phillips' case. The jury selected was Myron E. Annie, Harry Prentice, George Fuestman, Ed. Rossiter, A. H. Bosworth, Bert Pearl, W. A. Foster, John Harris, Paul B. Harms, S. J. Mall, Wm. Wagner and Levi Johnson.

After the jury was secured a lengthy conference was held between the principals, the result of which was the settlement of the case and its dismissal from the docket.

Drainage Case Up.
Mandamus proceedings against the commissioners of the Union drainage No. 1 of Harmon and Marion township was taken up this afternoon, with Attorney H. A. Brooks appearing for the petitioners, who allege that the ditches have become damaged up by stone, dirt and trees and who ask that the commissioners be ordered to levy another assessment with which to clean and enlarge the ditches.

Writ Will Be Issued.
After hearing the evidence presented by the petitioners, the commissioners were called and defaulted, after which Judge Heard instructed the jury to find that a writ of mandamus should be issued. The jury was then excused until Monday afternoon at 1:30.

KILLED FOR HANDING OVER HIS OFFICE

GENERAL MONTERO OF ECUADOR SHOT BY ANGRY POPULACE AND BURNED.

Guayaquil, Ecuador, Jan. 26.—Special—General Montero, who was proclaimed president in November, but handed over the provincial government to General Alfaro, was today shot by the angry populace, dragged through the streets, beheaded and burned.

MAKING BUTTER AT THE BORDEN PLANT

PRESENT PRICE MAKES THE VENTURE PROFITABLE ONE FOR COMPANY.

The Borden milk factory yesterday commenced a new branch of their business, when a butter making department was opened. The company will probably manufacture a great deal of butter during the winter, the present high price of the commodity, making it a very profitable product.

SIXTEEN TEACHERS

TAKING EXAMS.
Sixteen applicants are taking the teachers' examination before County Superintendent L. W. Miller today. Their ages are from 14 years up and Eight of the applicants are from Harmon, three from Coppins' Commercial school, 4 from Dixon college and 1 from Freeport.

ATTENDED FUNERAL OF

FRIEND IN CHICAGO.
Father Considine returned last evening from Chicago, where he attended the funeral of his friend, Dr. Crowe, the prominent Chicago physician who was killed in such a tragic manner when struck by an auto truck in that city last Saturday.

HAS BUTTERFLY

HATCHED IN JANUARY.
Francis Hemminger has on exhibition in a large glass jar at Leake Brothers' store a large butterfly that hatched from its cocoon Sunday. Late in the fall the lad found the cocoon on a branch, and cutting off the twig took it into the house to keep it warm. The result was a beautiful butterfly, and the sight of a live butterfly in midwinter—a real curiosity.

LEE COUNTY SCHOOLS LONG AT THE HEAD

LIST OF DIPLOMAS WILL GROW AS ANNUAL INSPECTION PROGRESSES.

The Telegraph recently printed an article with reference to the good work being done in the country school of Lee county, an encouraging report which was not intended to reflect any discredit upon County Superintendent Miller's predecessor. As a wrong impression may have been gained by some we wish to repeat the statement that we have frequently made in the past, that while I. F. Edwards was at the head of the schools of the county there was not a county in the state whose schools were better managed or where there was better co-operation on the part of teachers and superintendent for the improvement of the schools. The same condition prevails today and Superintendent Miller is making every effort to continue the improvement, and is meeting with deserved success.

We wish to thank the Amboy News for calling our attention to a misleading statement regarding the issuance of diplomas to the schools. It seems that under the requirements of the state superintendent's office these diplomas must be renewed each year, and only after a re-inspection of the schools. At the close of Mr. Edwards' term of office there were 64 schools in Lee county which had diplomas, and Lee county led all the other counties of the state in the number of diplomas issued to country schools and in fact had one-sixth of the entire number in the state.

The requirements in the matter of equipment, surroundings and teaching have been raised in recent years, and the new diplomas require an annual inspection of the schools to see if they have maintained the standard. If they have not, the diploma is revoked.

A letter from State Superintendent Blair, from which the Amboy News quotes, says that under the new requirements the state supervisor of country schools went to Lee county and in company with the county superintendent visited fifteen schools. Of these, five met the conditions fully and were awarded the new diplomas. Six others, upon making a few changes in the seating and ventilating, were brought up to the standard and were awarded the diplomas, making eleven standard no-room school diplomas issued to Lee county under the new plan. One school has met the conditions for the "superior" diploma which the state office has planned for schools which have a superior equipment. He says, "There are, no doubt, other schools which will meet the standard when another visit is made by the country school supervisor."

"When I came into this office," continues Mr. Blair, "there was a diploma issued for the 'excellent' condition of the school grounds, school house, furniture and equipment in accordance with the regulations of the state department relating thereto. Very little had been done in the way of urging county superintendents to use this diploma as an incentive for bettering the physical equipment of their schools. However, there were a few county superintendents who saw the value of the diploma and used a considerable number of them. Of this number Lee stood at the head. The records show that 79 diplomas were issued to Lee county, several of them being duplicates; 37 to Mercer county, 39 to McLean, 29 to Ogle, 27 to Rock Island, 25 to Kendall, 22 to Fulton, 26 to Richland, 15 to Whiteside, 19 to DeKalb. These diplomas were issued upon the certification of the county superintendent that the school had been inspected and the diploma warranted. After my election to this office I saw the value of such a diploma if the requirements were made a little higher, and if some one was placed in this office who should assist the county superintendent in making the inspection. The requirements were re-written as follows: 'For the satisfactory condition of the school yard, trees, water supply, out-houses, school building, heating, ventilation, furnishings, organization and teaching, as determined by an inspection made by this department and recorded in the office of the county superintendent.'

INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN IN DRAINAGE MATTER

GEN. F. C. AINSWORTH

Major General F. C. Ainsworth, adjutant general of the army, is upholding the "staff" side of the argument in favor of the Hay army bill, as opposed to the "line" forces led by Major General Wood.

superintendent of schools. This diploma will be renewed annually upon the statement of the county superintendent that the above conditions remain satisfactory."

TO VISIT "BIG DITCH"

Taft Orders Fisher and Hitchcock to Isthmus.

Secretary of Interior and Postmaster General to Sail for a Tour of Inspection.

Washington, Jan. 26.—Secretary of the Interior Fisher and Postmaster General Hitchcock, the only two members of President Taft's cabinet who have not visited the Panama canal, have been ordered by the president, it was unofficially learned here, to make a tour of inspection. They will leave here probably about the middle of February.

On account of the numerous questions which arise in cabinet meeting discussion dealing with the changed commercial relations that the opening of the Panama canal will bring about, the president is desirous of having every member of the cabinet familiar with conditions on the isthmus.

UNVEIL BUNYAN WINDOW

Inception of Memorial at Westminster Due to American Baptists.

London, England, Jan. 26.—A memorial window for John Bunyan was unveiled in Westminster abbey here, 224 years after his death. The window illustrates scenes from "Pilgrim's Progress." The dedication ceremony was attended by a large gathering of public men and many dignitaries of both the church and the state.

Kentucky Nears "Dry" Rule.
Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 26.—By a vote of 24 to 14 the Kentucky senate has passed the county unit local option law. It is more than safe to say that within a year there will not be a barroom in the state.

"Billy" Delaney Is Dead.

Oakland, Cal., Jan. 26.—William A. ("Billy") Delaney, famous trainer of champion pugilists, died here at his home in this city. He had been ill for several months and his death was not unexpected. While on a visit to the east last year he contracted a severe cold, complications of which caused his death.

SEEKS CAUSE OF STRIKE

Asks Immediate Investigation of Walkout of Mill Workers.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 26.—Governor Foss has sent a special message to the legislature urging an immediate investigation of the strike in the textile mills in Lawrence. The governor points out that the strike was not wholly due to the 50 hour law, but that unrest prevailed before that measure was passed. In the message he defends his action in sending the militia to Lawrence on account of the disturbances there.

Dr. and Mrs. Z. W. Moss go to Chicago Saturday morning to visit the automobile show. They will be gone until Tuesday.

ATTORNEYS HAVE FINISHED ARGUMENTS—NOW UP TO THE JURY.

JURY WILL INSPECT THE LAND

One Man to Pay $20,000—None of Men Heaviest Assessed Are Objecting.

Arguments by the attorneys in the Inlet Swamp drainage case were completed yesterday and today Judge R. H. Scott delivered his instructions to the jury. There were an exceptionally large number of instructions and the case is one that presents a great deal of study for the jurors. Next week they will go to the drainage district and will probably spend ten days or two weeks looking over the ground in the light of what they have heard as evidence and in the arguments of the attorneys. After their inspection of the lands in the district they will return to Dixon where they will make such changes in the assessment as they think fit.

One Man Pays $20,000.

Some interesting figures have been shown by the commissioners and they show that some of the land owners will pay enormous taxes for drainage under this assessment. And a very strong feature is that none of those who will pay the larger sums are objecting. The heavier assessments are in the west of the flat area of the district, the highest tax in that district being about four times as great as the highest assessment in the east end of the district.

The heavier payers are E. F. Nichols who, under the present roll will be assessed $20,000; A. H. Nichols and B. M. Stoddard, each of whom is taxed $12,000, and A. H. Parks and John T. Gibson, $11,000 each. The highest tax in the east part of the district is but $5,900.

Judge to Fix Time.

Following the adjustment of the roll by the jury, Judge Scott will determine as to the time limit on the bonds and the period of payments. The commissioners have given out the information that a number of the heavier payers will pay their entire assessments in cash as soon as the roll is confirmed by the court. Others of course will want time and it is probable the commissioners will ask that the bonds be allowed to run for fifteen years, the first five of which interest only will be paid, after which the bonds will mature in ten equal payments.

Jury to Report Feb. 12.

The case was given to the jury just before noon, when it was decided to make the trip over the district next week. The jury will leave here Tuesday at 8 a. m. in charge of Bailiffs G. G. Messer and A. T. Tourtellott. They will be met at Lee Center by Engineer Egan, who will show them the boundaries of the district. The court has issued the customary strict orders that no one converse with any member of the jury concerning the work, and land owners in the section are especially warned against this. The jury is ordered to report to the court Monday, Feb. 12.

NEW YORK GOVERNOR ILL

Executive Suffers From a Sudden Attack of Nervous Prostration.

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 26.—Governor Dix is ill in bed with an attack of nervous prostration which came on him very suddenly. His collapse was so complete that his engagement to speak at the New York Catholic society dinner to Cardinal Farley here was canceled and proposed conferences with Tammany Boss Murphy and other machine leaders as to the selection of a health officer, public service commissioner and superintendent of insurance were indefinitely postponed.

Mrs. Will Hanson of Chicago is her to visit her mother, Mrs. Fee.

Moonlight Dance.

A moonlight leap year dance is to be given in Rosbrook hall Monday evening, Jan. 29, by the B. & F. club. The music will be furnished by Heft's orchestra. A large number of invitations have been issued and a goodly attendance is expected. Gentlemen without lady escorts will be welcome.

Chautauqua Circle.

The Chautauqua Circle will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Miss Faith Neighbour.

With Luncheon.

Mrs. Fred Dimick entertained 12 guests with a luncheon Thursday. Henry Newman and daughter, Miss Amanda Newman, of Ashton, made the Telegraph a very pleasant call today.

Mystic Workers Dance.

The Mystic Workers will hold a dance on Tuesday evening, Jan. 30, at Rosbrook hall. Slothowers' orchestra will furnish the music. Every body is invited and assured a good time.

School Dance Tonight.

The sophomores of the Dixon high school will entertain themselves and friends this evening with a dancing party at the Armory hall.

Tenth Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barnett, residing two and a half miles east of Dixon, were most happily surprised Wednesday evening, Jan. 24th, when a large company of their friends and relatives, to the number of 75, came in upon them to help them celebrate their tenth wedding anniversary. In the party were eleven from Oregon, including Dave Barnett, a brother of Thomas Barnett. The evening was enjoyed with games, music and dancing the music for the dancing being provided by Messrs. Bartholomew and Smith. Refreshments were served at 12 o'clock and the guests presented Mr. and Mrs. Barnett with a handsome set of silverware and with the gift wishing them many more anniversaries.

Stars of Equity.

The American Stars of Equity will hold their regular meeting, Jan. 29, in Union hall. All members of the drill team are requested to be present and assist in the initiation of candidates. A large attendance is desired also from the members of the lodge as this will be the first meeting of the year under the supervision of the new officers and your presence might give them further encouragement in their work for the new year.

Debate Postponed.

The debate which was to have taken place in the College chapel this evening has been postponed on account of the illness of one of the debaters.

Moose Initiate Tonight.

All members of the Royal Order of Moose will please attend the regular meeting tonight in Maccabee hall. Initiation will be conducted.

Jolite Club Met.

The members of the Jolite club held a business meeting at the home of Miss Josephine Austin last evening, the purpose of which was to make preliminary arrangements for the charity ball, to be given by the club at Rosbrook hall next Thursday evening.

At Boucher Home.

Miss Irene Boucher of North Dixon entertained 20 of her friends at her home in honor of Miss Hilda Gerdes' eighteenth birthday. The evening was spent with music and games. Refreshments were served and at a late hour they departed for home, wishing Miss Gerdes many more happy birthdays.

Healo—good for the feet. Keeps them in a healthy condition. Ask your druggist.

FAMILY THEATRE

Those who enjoy mysteries are having a rare treat in the present bill at the Family, for Rush Ling Toy and company are supplying more mystery in 15 minutes than the average man encounters in a life time. The many surprises in the clever Chinese tricks keeps the audience on the alert every minute, for the most unexpected things are happening in rapid succession. This is one of the best acts of the kind ever seen in Dixon and no one should miss it. The second act is a representation of incidents in the life of street urchins presented by Talford and Beslon. New pictures are shown each evening. Matinee tomorrow afternoon.

PRINCESS THEATRE.

There will be a good program tonight at the Princess. The Higher the Fewer is an airy aeroplane comedy. A prize fighter who inherits a mania for aeroplanes and a title loves a cultured girl. See the elopement by aeroplane. At Service With Johnston and Lee is a war drama with plenty of excitement and heart interest. The Stranger is a western drama with excellent colorings.

Scene From the Whirlpool to Be Presented at the Opera House Sunday Night by the Harvey Stock Company.

THE COBURN PLAYERS

The Coburn Players, a company of dramatic artists of ability and interest in the highest phase of dramatic presentations, will be at the opera house for a return engagement tomorrow night for a performance of The Merchant of Venice, considered Shakespeare's masterpiece.

The selection of the play should be highly gratifying as the plot is interesting and the wit and humor and phrases that have passed into current coin are abundant. When all has been said it must be confessed many of us go to the play for the intellectual delight rather than to be torn by the iconoclastic scalpel of the moral vivisectionist or bored by the inanities of the average minstrel show.

There are 24 acting members in the company and the different productions are provided with scenic and costume effects that are said to depict the stage pictures in an absolutely correct manner from an histrionic standpoint.

The state law provides that autos cannot run beyond a certain speed. But we have failed to note any ordinance covering those coasting sleds which shoot down some of the hills in the city with the speed of an express train. Someone's going to get hurt, then probably the department of public safety will devise means of curbing this dangerous sport.

There's a sign in Sterling which reads: Washing and ironing and going out to work taken in here.

Although this is leap year we keep reading and hearing of some girl who has "capitulated" to Cupid.

Most men can really see their finch all the time, but they invariably think it's something else.

Will power can conquer anything—even a dislike to olives and prunes.

Friends of Justus Schweinsberg are informing him today that a cash register is not a couch or a Morris chair. Justus threw his ponderous weight against one of the machines yesterday in an effort to rest, and the register remonstrated by giving away and the result was that $1.90 was rung up that wasn't in the drawer.

The sun shines only on one side of the street, but that's no reason why so many men should try to walk on both sides at once.

It's always pathetic to see an old person trying to pretend he's thoroughly at home beside a steam radiator.

An eastern manufacturer has invented a noiseless hammer. Sewing circles and like organizations please take notice.

Watch Carefully.

An excellent counterfeit $100 bill is in circulation. Look carefully at your change.

Reserve Your Judgment.

Don't make too much fun of the young man who appears in a bright red necktie, together with purple socks. You may be doing him a great injustice. We've known men to wear that kind of apparel because they were given to them by rich aunts, whom they expect to cash in soon.

There's No Difference.

Some well meaning, but mistaken philosopher has devoted countless words to describing the different varieties of women. There's only one variety—those who wear false hair.

There's a Reason.

Grandpop Perkins of our village says he's going to vote for Bryan again whether he runs or not. It's awful hard for some of those old ginks to break themselves of a habit.

Hod Bibbins only got 1 Christmas present last X-mas and he fell down and broke it while he was going home and it spilled all over him. A hip pocket is no place to carry a X-mas present anyway.

BIG TUNNEL NEAR FINISH

Will Carry New York's Water Supply Under Hudson River.

Mattawan, N. Y., Jan. 26.—Only nine feet more of boring remains to connect the two ends of the tunnel which has been under course of construction here to carry the new water supply for New York city under the Hudson river. Next week Mayor Gaynor and other New York city officials will witness the completion of the great engineering feat and will walk through the tunnel. The boring is through solid rock, 1,150 feet below the bed of the river.

Taft PARDON FOR INDIAN

Toy Toy Slew Woman Doctor Who Failed to Cure Father.

Washington, Jan. 26.—President Taft has commuted to expire at once, the life imprisonment of Toy Toy, a Umatilla Indian, who, in accordance with the traditions of his tribe, murdered Anna Edna, a woman doctor, who failed to cure his father, and thus in the eyes of the tribe was stamped as a witch, justifying her death. He was convicted at Portland, Ore.

YUKON OUTDONE

IN MANITOBA

Hundreds Rush to Minitonas,

Scene of the Latest Gold

Strike.

FIND NUGGETS IN FOWLS

Six-Ounce Chunks of Metal Unearthed

Only Two Feet Below "Grass

Roots"—Men, Women and Children Flocking to Fields.

Winnipeg, Man., Jan. 26.—Men, women, and even children, are flocking to Minitonas, a little town on the Canadian Northern railway, 268 miles west of here. Gold has been discovered there, and if even only a small percentage of the fabulous stories being told are true it is the richest find in the history of Western Canada and rivals the Yukon fields.

For Christmas George Elliott, a farmer, took into Minitonas several turkeys. When dressed, particles of gold were found in their crops. One had several small nuggets. The discovery was kept as quiet as possible while several went prospecting, but without success. Then others heard of it and traced the turkeys to Eli-ott's and there began prospecting. Last week several small nuggets were found and claims staked, but it was not until this week that the finds were taken seriously.

Two days ago several drills were put to work. Yesterday gold in paying quantities was struck. Today five drills are at work around the town and each has struck gold in seams only two feet below the surface.

George Holroyd, a Yukon miner, began work this morning with a pick and shovel. At noon he found a nugget weighing more than seven ounces.

At the next shovelful he dug out a four and a three and a half ounce nugget.

Similar to Yukon's Black Earth.

Alex. MacKenzie found two nuggets, each weighing five ounces, and many other finds have been reported in all directions from town, until it becomes evident that Minitonas is built upon a bed of gold-bearing black sand similar to that found in the Yukon.

Three feet of snow covers the ground and makes prospecting exceedingly difficult, but the thousands who have rushed to the goldfields from all parts of western Canada do not mind, and madly shovel it away to get at the pay dirt underneath. Every one in the town is gold mad. Business has been suspended entirely, for every man and woman, and many children, are digging and scratching for the yellow

Ohio Cities Ask Home Rule.
 Columbus, O., Jan. 26.—At a conference of the representatives of more than 60 Ohio municipalities resolutions declaring in favor of home rule for cities were adopted and will be presented to the Ohio constitutional convention in the form of a memorial.
Starves to Death on Diet.
 Omaha, Neb., Jan. 26.—Mrs. Soutze Zachau, who began dieting six months ago in an effort to recover her health, starved to death here.
Ecuador Troops Suffer Loss.
 Guayaquil, Ecuador, Jan. 26.—An explosion occurred in the artillery barracks here. Sixty men were killed or wounded.

EASILY ADJUSTED.

When the family for which Uncle Erastus had worked so long and faithfully presented him with a mule, he was overcome with joy.
 "He's a bad kicker, Uncle Erastus," said the son of the family. "I told father I didn't see what you could do with an animal that liked to kick and back better than anything else."
 "It's got all dat planned," said Uncle Erastus, solemnly. "When I harnesses dat animal into my cart, if he acts contumacious an' starts in to back, I's gwine to take him right out'n the cart, turn it round, an' den harnesses dat mule in hindsides befo'. Dat'll humor him, an' it'll get my cart up de hill jes' de same."
 Youth's Companion.

Hoping Against Hope.

Lord Londonderry tells a tale which conveys its own moral about an Irishman in his employ. "I was on the everlasting subject of Ireland's wrongs. 'We'll not get home rule for old Ireland,' said this son of Erin, 'till Germany, France, Russia and America give them bayard's of Englishmen a good bathing.' After a pause he added proudly: 'And, begor, t' whole lot of 'em shoved together couldn't do it! Oh, it's the grand navy we've got!'"—M. A. P.

CINCH.

Joax—I envy Noah every time it rains.
 Hoax—Why?
 Joax—He was out in the longest rainstorm on record, and nobody ever tried to borrow his umbrella.

Poetry for Today.

To market, to market
 To buy a fat pig;
 Home again, home again,
 Price is too big.

—Judge.

Whah She Was Bo'n.

Lawyer (examining middle-aged negro woman as a witness—Madam, did I understand you to say your daughter was born in wedlock?
 Witness—No, sah; I nevah said she was bo'n in wedlock; I said she was bo'n in Hahudsbug, Kaintucky.—Judge.

Excuse.

"In the middle of their trip to Europe, Mrs. Bibbs accused her husband of being intoxicated, and what excuse do you suppose he gave?"
 "What was it?"
 "That he couldn't help being half seas over."

How Hunter Was Hurt.

The hunter, who had been mistaken for a deer and shot, roused up and beckoned to the hospital nurse.
 "Understand," he said, "I don't care so much about being killed, but it's this being made game of that hurts my feelings."

THE WAY HE TOOK IT.

Her Father—Young man, I cannot permit my daughter to leave the parental roof.
 Her Suitor—Say no more—that's the gravy. That will lay all over him a flat.

How Sad.

How sad it is
 To go through life
 And have to kiss
 An ugly wife!

A Vigorous Performer.

"Does your boy Josh play on the football team?"
 "No," replied Farmer Cornstassel. "John wouldn't stand for no molly-coddle job like that. He's the feller that leads the mob and wrecks opry houses after the game is over."

Plenty of Purpose.

"I have here a poem."
 "Is it a poem of any serious purpose?" inquired the editor of the High-Brow Magazine.
 "It is, sir. It was written to pay my board bill with."

RELIGION LAGS BEHIND

United States Grows Faster Than Its Churches.

Falling Off in Membership Gains Noted in Annual Religious Census Report Just Out.

New York, Jan. 26.—Churches in the United States are not keeping abreast of the increase of population, according to the compilation of Dr. H. K. Carroll, former director of the religious census. The churches of the United States, according to Dr. Carroll, added only 594,366 to their membership in 1911. Of this, 230,665 is credited to the Catholics and 204,289 to the Methodists. There was also an increase of 1,990 ministers and 2,832 churches in the same period.

"The increase in 1911 was less than 1.7 per cent," says Dr. Carroll, "which cannot be considered at all satisfactory."

The report continues:
 "The Methodist Episcopal church (northern), which has been one of the most active evangelizing and prosperous denominations, reports, it is true, a larger increase than usual—nearly 48,000—but its percentage is a fraction below the average. The Presbyterian church (northern) falls below 1 per cent and the Protestant Episcopal church barely reaches 2 per cent.

"The average net increase of the Methodist church is less than 2 for each of its churches, that of the Northern Presbyterian is a little over 1 and that of the Protestant Episcopal church is somewhat over 2. The losses by death, removal, exclusion, etc., must be much larger than formerly, or the ingathering through the Sunday school, revivals, etc., must be smaller. The net increase during the decade ending with 1910 was about 786,000 a year."

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Samuel E. Fisher, Minister.
We enjoyed the largest audiences last Sunday we have had for several weeks. The revival spirit is with us.
The class banquet which is to be served to the Young Ladies' class by the Young Men's class, will be given next Tuesday evening in the parlors of the church.
The good words concerning the series of morning sermons now being delivered are legion. The series is on the general subject, "The Messages to the Seven Churches." Next Sunday the minister will present the fourth in the series. The subject will be, "The Pergamum Letter, or The Impure Church."

The minister will preach next Sunday evening on the subject, "Getting Religion and Perfect Obedience." A blackboard will be used to illustrate the sermon. Come and bring your friends.
The servant girl who had been given an afternoon off to attend a matinee, returned unusually early.
"Why," said her mistress, "you can't have waited to see the whole performance?"
"No, ma'am," was the reply; "it said on the program that Act III. was the same as Act I, and I don't want to see it again."—London Opinion.

HOME FROM COURT.

Judge R. S. Farrand and Court Reporter A. C. Gossman returned Thursday afternoon from Oregon, where the judge adjourned court until next Wednesday.

ST. PAUL'S LUTHERAN.

There will be a special rally of the young people at 6:45 p. m., when Sec retary Bailey of the Y. M. C. A., will have a helpful message for all who are present.

There will be no preaching service Sunday morning at the German Lutheran church, as the pastor will be in Franklin Grove.
Sunday school as usual; evening service at 7:30.
Choir practice this evening.

BAPTIST CHURCH.

Regular services at the usual hours. Preaching both morning and evening by Rev. John W. Newson of the University of Chicago. Rev. Newson is a Fellow of the Rochester, N. Y., Seminary and is spoken of as a man of great ability. Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. and prayer meeting, 6:30 o'clock.

THE DOLLAR AT THE DOOR.

One day a silver dollar sought
A lodging in the town,
The cheery ring of silver brought,
Intent to settle down.
The fellow it was first to sight
Was one, I'm said to say,
Who did not hasten to invite
The coin in town to stay.

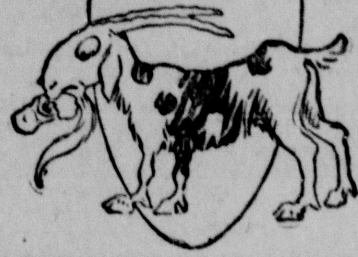

The most unpatriotic man,
Instead of being glad
To aid the dollar in the plan
To help the town it had,
The dollar sent afar to roam
In other regions then—
And never to his home or town
That dollar came again.

Another dollar also came,
But met a man more kind—
A fellow with a different name,
More patriotic mind.
He asked it in, he bade it stay
And help the town to grow;
And never more it roamed away
Or cared afar to go.

From house to house that dollar went
And labored for the good
Of ev'ry man to whom 'twas sent
And all the neighborhood.
It helped the farmer's field to till,
To swing the woodman's ax,
To build the church upon the hill
And pay the village tax.

Next time a dollar comes to town
Let's greet it with a cheer;
Don't send it off or turn it down,
But let it settle here—
For ev'ry dollar come to roost
In home, or farm, or store,
Is one more dollar come to boost
The town a little more.
—Douglas Malloch, in the American Lumberman.

CURRENT WIT and HUMOR

Helping a Worthy Cause.

"I have called," said the strange woman, "to see if you will subscribe to our foreign mission fund."
"And what is the purpose of the fund?" asked the lady of the house.
"We want to send hymnbooks to Timbuctoo."
"Just a moment. We have two hymnbooks that you may have. Since our daughter got married and took away, the piano we have no further use for them. Please send them to the heathen with our compliments."

Craving for Variety.

The servant girl who had been given an afternoon off to attend a matinee, returned unusually early.
"Why," said her mistress, "you can't have waited to see the whole performance?"
"No, ma'am," was the reply; "it said on the program that Act III. was the same as Act I, and I don't want to see it again."—London Opinion.

It May Be.

"I see that coal dust is said to be beneficial to the health."
"Is that old wheeze going the rounds again?"
"Then you have heard it before?"
"Yes; I think some dub puts it into circulation every fall, just to jolly the people who have furnaces to tend."

IN THE COUNTRY.

"Sell many bullfrogs this week?"
"Twice as many as usual."
"Bull frog business is on the jump, isn't it?"

The Result.

As deep as the canyons,
As deep as the sea;
So deep am I running
In debt over these.

—Judge.

Incoherent.

"Jobbins got rather mixed in his talk when he was telling me how meanly his so-called fried treated him."
"What did he say?"
"He said he got a raw deal when they cooked up that scheme."

Still Life.

"I want some pictures for my dining room."
"We have some nice fish pictures; also some studies of game."
"I think a picture of a bottle of dyspepsia tablets would be more appropriate, don't you think?"

Tame by Contrast.

"I went to Europe too late."
"How so?"
"I expected to see some picturesque costumes, but they all looked tame after a few seasons of the hobble gown and the ding-a-ling hat."

Had Learned Since.

Mrs. Peckem—I expect my brother will live and die a bachelor. He says he's afraid to marry.
Peckem—That's funny. I never knew what fear was—when I was single.—Stray Stories.

Dangerous Experiment.

"He says he is going to look up his family tree."
"He had better make sure first that there are none of his ancestors swinging up there ready to throw nuts at him."

Confidences.

Gwenie—"Why did you refuse him, if he is such a prudent man?"
Gertie—"He said he thought if he got married he could save more money."—London Opinion.

AMBOY HAPPENINGS

NEWS OF THE DAY AS GATHERED BY OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.

Amboy, Jan. 26.—The remains of Mrs. Frank Linn of Chicago, formerly a resident of Lee Center, were brought here Monday evening for burial. The burial took place Tuesday forenoon at Woodside cemetery near Lee Center, where services were conducted by Rev. H. H. Appelmann.

Word was received Wednesday by relatives here of the death of Patrick Loan at his home in Iowa. He was a brother of James and Frank Loan. The remains will be brought here and taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. Bernard Friel, on the west side, and the burial will probably be in Maytown.

The regular meeting of the W. R. C. will be held next Saturday afternoon. After 3:30 p. m. the session will be open to the public and a program consisting of music, etc., will be presented. The members of the G. A. R. and the general public are invited.

The ladies of the W. R. C. tendered a surprise on Tuesday, Jan. 23, to Mrs. O. Tennant and her daughter, Mrs. Andrew Meyers, at their home on Metcalf street, the occasion being Mrs. Tennant's 39th wedding anniversary; 34 of the Corps ladies attended the gathering and served a bountiful dinner in honor of their hostesses. A delightful day was spent.

The ladies of Mrs. J. E. Lewis' class of the M. E. Sunday school served a banquet in the church basement on Wednesday evening to the members of Rev. F. W. Merrill's Bible class of men, which has been organized since Rev. Merrill's arrival here last fall and which now numbers 25 members.

The work of repairing and decorating the Catholic church is now under way. As soon as the decorators have finished their work there, the work of repairing and decorating the interior of the Congregational church will be given into their hands.

This evening a leap year banquet will be given in the Baptist church to the members of D. W. Bristol's Sunday school class, by Rev. Wallace's class.

Norman Green attended the poultry show in Dixon Thursday.

Mrs. W. F. Dewey entertained the Arbutus club Thursday afternoon. B. F. Leavens of Sac City, Ia., is here to visit his mother at Lee Center.

Miss Mary Friel went to Milwaukee Thursday for a stay of several weeks.

Jacob Welanke's drug store has been undergoing a thorough renovating and painting.

Miss Margaret Gallagher went to Chicago Thursday for a short visit with friends.

Mrs. Henry Gilton of Franklin Grove has returned home after a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Spencer, of this city.

The year's ice crop has been secured, all the ice houses in the vicinity being filled with a supply of unusually solid ice.

HARVEY STOCK CO.

ALL NEXT WEEK
Starting Sunday night the Harvey Stock company will open a 9 days' engagement at the opera house in an entirely new repertoire of plays. The Harvey Co. is new to Dixon theatregoers; however, they come with the reputation of being one of the best stock companies on the road and during their stay they will present only high class specialty plays. They number 14 people and carry special scenery and electrical effects for all their high class vaudeville artists, who will introduce singing and dancing specialties between acts. The opening number will be a four act western comedy drama entitled "The Whirlpool."

LEBOWICH OPENS

BIG SHOE SALE TOMORROW
Henry Lebowich will tomorrow open his big shoe sale in his new store on Galena avenue. As stated before, this is a new stock and undamaged save for the soiling of some of the boxes by water when there was a fire in the adjoining building last Sunday. In consequence a reduction is made on all of the goods in the store.

CHAPTER XIII.

A Strange Way Out.

Caton came in once more about the middle of the afternoon, bringing me some blankets; but he had no news, and his boyish face was a picture of

"I Am to Be Shot, Then?"

pathos as he wrung my hand goodbye. Sheridan, he said, had gone down the river, and both Brennan and himself were under orders to follow in another hour. What instructions, if any, had been left regarding my case he could not say, but he feared the worst from the unusual secrecy. Sheridan expected to return to his headquarters that same evening, as the officers of his staff were to give a grand ball.

I felt no inclination to partake of the rude supper left me, and just before dark I was lying upon the bench idly wondering if that was to prove the last vestige of daylight I should ever behold in this world, when, without slightest warning, the heavy iron grating in the wall directly above me fell suddenly, striking the edge of the bench, and clattered noisily to the floor. The fall was so unexpected, and my escape from injury so narrow, that I lay almost stunned, staring up helplessly at the dark hole thus left bare.

As I gazed, a face framed itself in this narrow opening, and two wary eyes peered cautiously down at me. There was no mistaking that countenance even in the fast waning light, and I instantly sat up with an exclamation of surprise.

"Jed Bungay, as I live!"

The puzzled face broke into a grin of delight.

"Holy smoke, Cap," he ejaculated, with a deep sigh of relief, "is that you, suah? I was so durned skeered 'd made a mess o' it when that iron drapped that I near died. What be they a goin' ter dew with ye?"

"I have every reason to believe it is their purpose to shoot me at day-break to-morrow."

"Shoot?—Hell!" He stared at me as if he had just heard his own death sentence pronounced, and his little peaked face looked ghastly in the dim light. "Shoot ye? Good Lord, Cap, what fer? Ye ain't done nothin' as I knows on, 'cept ter scrap a bit with that blasted Yank, an' sure thet's no shootin' matter, er else I'd a bin a goner long ago."

"That 'Yank' has seen fit to charge me with being a spy; and as I was foolish enough to insult General Sheridan last night, my fate is probably sealed."

This somewhat complex statement seemed to be too much for Jed to grasp promptly.

"Gosh, ye don't say!" he muttered. "Then, durn it, I'm in luck, fer all they've got agin me is pot-shootin' at a nigger soger up in their mountings; on thet ain't much, 'cause I didn't hit ther durned cuss."

Jed was carefully covering every inch of exposed wall with his little shrewd, glinting eyes.

"Ain't no show ter work out o' yere, is thar, Cap?" he asked at last reflectively; "leastwise I don't see none, 'less them thar dark corners hes got holes in 'em."

"The wall is entirely solid."

"So I sorter reckoned. But if ye'll crawl through yere inter my bodoud, thar's a place whar I reckon ther tow of us tergether mought make a try fer it. It's too durn high up fer me ter git at alone. I reckon, Cap, 'twee-cud manage ter git out o' yere terntight, an' take some news ter Lee thet I've picked up, he'd 'bout make both of us ginerals."

"News for Lee?" I exclaimed, staring eagerly at him through the now darkened room. "Do you mean it? What news?"

"Thought maybe thet wud wake ye up," he chuckled. "This yere's gospel truth: Sheridan hes started his infantry on a half-doile march fer Minersville. Ther first division left at three o'clock, an' thar won't be nary Yank loatin' on ther valley by noon to-morrow. An' more," he added rapidly, his eyes dancing wildly with suppressed excitement. "Hancock is a swincher of his corps west ter meet 'em thar, an' I reckon, as how thar'll be hell fer sartin' up ther Shenandoah in less'n'r a week."

"But how do you know all this?" I questioned incredulously, as the whole scene and its dread possibilities unrolled before my mental vision.

"Ther nigger I held up hed a de-spatch fer Heintzelman over on ther left, an' then Marlar she sorter pumped a young fule staff officer fer ther rest o' it," he replied promptly. "Oh, it's a sure go, Cap, an' I reckon at how maybe Lee's whole army hangs on one of us kittin' out o' yere ter-night."

That he meant every word he spoke I felt convinced, and his enthusiasm was contagious. My blood leaped within me at this call to action; all lethargy fled, and with it every deadening thought of her who had so suddenly woven about me the meshes of her power. False or true, maid, wife, or widow, my duty as a soldier to my commander and the army to which I belonged, blotted out all else. Even as this new rush of determination swept over me, above us there sounded clearly the dashing music of a military band in the strains of a Strauss's waltz, and we could distinguish the muffled shuffling of many feet on the oaken floor overhead. Caton's chance remark about the great ball to be given that evening by officers of the headquarters staff recurred to my memory.

"That dancin' up there will help us, Jed," I said quickly, my mind now active to grasp every detail. "You say there is a chance for escape from your cell? Then give me your hand, and help me to crawl through that hole."

It was a narrow squeeze for a man of my size, yet I crept through without great difficulty, and found myself in the dense darkness of a room which, as I judged hastily from feeling about me, was similar in shape and extent to the one in which I had been confined. Bungay, however, permitted me little time for exploration. Grasping me firmly by the arm, and feeling his way along the wall, he groped across to the other side.

"There's a mighty big stone chimney comes down yere, Cap," he whispered. "An' ther openin' ter take out soot an' ashes is up thar, jist 'b'low ther fluer. It's a sheet-iron pan, I reckon, ther way it feels; an' it must be thar they put a nigger in ter clean ther chimney whin it gits stuffed up. I could git up thar alone, but I couldn't do no work, but thet thar pan ought ter cum out all right. Dew ye think ye cud hol' me up, Cap? I'm purty durn heavy."

I smiled in the darkness at the little fellow's egotism, and lifting him as I might a child, poised him lightly upon my shoulder. He struggled a moment to steady himself against the wall, and then I could feel him tugging eagerly at something which appeared to yield slowly to his efforts.

As he worked, a dense shower of dust and soot caused me to close my eyes.

"She's a comin' all right," he said cheerfully, puffing with his exertions, "but I reckon as how this chimney ain't bin cleaned out since ther war begun. Hold up yer right han', Cap, an' git a blame good grip on her, fer she's almighty full, an' I'll want'er go down sorter easy like."

I did as he suggested, bracing myself to meet his movements, as he stood straining on his shoulders, and in another moment I had succeeded in lowering the large sheet-iron pan silently to the floor.

"Room 'nough yere fer two men ter onet," chuckled my companion, in rare delight. "The chief in silence strode before! Yere goes."

His weight left my shoulders; there was a slight scramble, another shower of dirt, then the sound of his voice once more.

"Lift up yer han's, Cap; dig in yer toes on ther stones, an' we'll begin our vi're."

He grasped my wrists with a strength which I had no conception the little fellow possessed. There was a moment's breathless struggle, and I squirmed through the opening, and lay panting on the flat slabs which composed the foot of the great funnel. To afford me more room Bungay had gone up a little, finding foothold upon the uneven stones of which the chimney was constructed. For a moment we rested thus motionless, both breathing heavily and listening to the music and shuffling of feet now almost upon a level with our heads.

The noise, which was strong and continuous, rendered discovery from any misstep highly improbable, and as delay was dangerous neither of us was disposed to linger long.

"Be ye all ready, Cap?" questioned Bungay, bending his head down. "Fer if ye be, I'm a goin' up."

"All right," I answered, struggling with my knees in the narrow space; "only take it slow, Jed. I'm a trifle bigger man than you, and this is rather close quarters."

"Wal, yes, maybe a matter of a pound'er two," he retorted, and the next moment I could hear him scraping his way upward, feeling for foothold upon the irregular layers of stone. I followed, pressing my knees firmly against the rough wall, and trusting more to my hands than feet for security against falling. There was evidently a fireplace of some kind on the first floor, with a considerable opening leading from it into the chimney we were scaling, for as Jed slowly passed, I could perceive a sudden gleam of light streaming across his face from the glare of the lamps within. He glanced anxiously that way, but did not pause in his steady climb upward.

A moment later I came opposite that same beam of radiance, and cautiously peered down the sloped opening that led to the disused fireplace. All I could perceive was a pair of legs, evidently those of a cavalry officer, judging from the broad yellow stripe down the seam of the light-blue trousers, and the high boots ornamented with royal spurs. He stood leaning carelessly against the mantel, talking with some one just beyond the range of my vision.

At that moment the music ceased suddenly, and afraid to proceed until it should strike up again, I braced myself securely on a projecting stone and bent my head over the orifice until I could catch a portion of the conversation being carried on by my unconscious neighbors.

"No," said the cavalryman, gruffly, and apparently in reply to some previous question, "the fellow was most devilish obstinate; wouldn't tell the first thing; even a threat of treatment as a spy and hanging him outright proved of no avail. But Sheridan's theory is that Lee has ordered Longstreet to hit our rear, while he makes a direct attack in front. That's why the 'old man' proposes to get in his work first, and we march at daylight to form connection with Hancock. By Jove, Chesley, but that woman in black over there with Follansbee is the handsomest picture I've seen south of the line. Mark how her eyes sparkle, and how prettily the light gleams in her hair! Who is she, do you chance to know?"

"Yes," lisped the other, languidly, "met her at breakfast, headquarters, this morning. Deuced pretty and all that, mighty good style, too, but taken, old man. She's Brennan's."

GAS, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION GOES

MAKES YOUR DISORDERED STOMACH FEEL FINE IN FIVE MINUTES

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of Indigestion or Dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach, if you will take a little Diapiesin occasionally.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes Belching, Dizziness, a feeling of fullness after eating, Nausea, Indigestion (it's a lump of lead in Water brash, Pain in stomach, and stomach), Bilioussness, Heartburn, Intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapiesin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. A single dose will digest all the food you eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour and upset the stomach.

Get a large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from your druggist and start taking now, and in a little while you will actually brag about your healthy, strong, Stomach, for you then can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and Gas, that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or any other assistance.

Should you at this moment be suffering from Indigestion or any stomach disorder, you can surely get relief within five minutes.

JUDGE MACK NAMED AGAIN

Chicago Jurist Will Serve Five Years More on Commerce Bench.

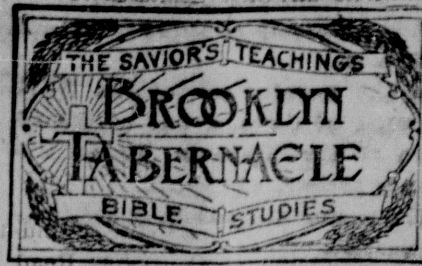

Washington, Jan. 26.—Judge Julian W. Mack of Chicago, junior member of the court of commerce, has been designated by the chief justice of the Supreme court to serve for five years more on the commerce bench. The commerce court judges rank officially as circuit judges, and are under the jurisdiction of the chief justice.

Four Die in One Family.

Youngstown, O., Jan. 26.—The four children of William G. Maxwell have died within eleven days. The last to succumb was Sarah, aged five years. Pneumonia was the cause of death in each instance.

Hill to Retire, Report.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 26.—That James J. Hill will retire as chairman of the board of directors of the Great Northern railroad is a persistent report here.

CONSECRATION IN THE TEMPLE.

Luke ii, 22-39—Jan. 28.

"For mine eyes have seen Thy salvation, which Thou hast prepared before the face of all people."—V. 30, 31.

WHEN JESUS was forty days old, Joseph and Mary took Him to Jerusalem and presented Him in consecration in the Temple. This was in accordance with the custom which related specially to the first-born in each family.

Although the first-born of the entire nation were passed over at the deliverance from Egypt, they had been exchanged for the one tribe of Levi, which had been specially devoted to God's service; and the same principle was exemplified in respect to the first-born of each mother. It was to be devoted specially to God and His service.

The significance of this we see when we remember that the elect Church, being gathered during this Gospel Age, is styled the Church of the Church of the First-born. Again, St. James tells us that we are "a-kind of first-fruits unto God of His creatures." The clear intimation of this is that after the church shall have been gathered to heavenly glory by the power of the First Resurrection, the Kingdom then to be established will bring blessings to all the families of the earth, giving them also the opportunity of becoming sons of God, on the earthly plane, by restitution processes.—Acts iii, 19-21.

"Set For the Fall and Rising Again of Many in Israel."

At the time of the consecration ceremony at the Temple, an aged Prophet came forward and took the babe Jesus in his arms and praised God.

By some power Divine this aged Prophet recognized Jesus, and after saying, "Now lettest Thou Thy servant depart in peace, for mine eyes have seen Thy salvation"—the way in which Thy salvation shall come to Israel and to all the families of the earth—he proceeded to say, "which Thou hast prepared in the presence of all people—the Light of the world and the Glory of Thy people Israel."

Simoen, addressing Mary, declared prophetically that the Child was "set for the fall and the rising of many in Israel, and for a sign (mark or standard), which shall be spoken against, that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed."

How wonderful a prophecy! It reminds us of the words of St. Paul, that our Lord is "a stone of stumbling and rock of offence" to many in Israel, that many stumbled, being disappointed. And St. Paul told also of the rising again of many who stumbled. He declares, "Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for, but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded"—stumbled—turned aside from Divine favor.—Romans xi, 7.

Not a sufficient number of "Israelites indeed" were found to complete the foreordained elect, and hence the invitation went beyond Abraham's natural seed to gather during this Gospel Age the saintly of every nation, people, kindred and tongue.

"All Israel Shall Be Saved."

A saintly woman, Anna, a Prophetess over a century old, resided in Jerusalem and in the precincts of the Temple courts. She, also, moved by the Holy Spirit, recognized the Babe and gave praise to God and mentioned the matter to the saintly ones who were waiting for the fulfillment of the Abrahamic promise—"for the consolation of Israel."

If the seeing of Jesus as a babe was worthy of praise and thanks, still more was it a cause of gratitude to God for those who beheld Him at the age of thirty, consecrating Himself a living sacrifice even unto death, and who realized that He had been begotten again by the Holy Spirit to be a New Creature, of the divine nature.

Those who saw the Master's faithfulness in performing the sacrifice of His consecration during the three and a half years of His ministry beheld still more for which to give God praise. And when He had finished His course at Calvary and was raised from the dead the third day, and forty days later ascended up on high where He was before, happy were they who recognized that further development of the Divine Plan for man's salvation—the blessing of all the families of the earth.

Still more blessed were those who at Pentecost received the Holy Spirit as a begetting power and those who since have received the same, evidencing that they are the children of God, and, "if children, then heirs of God and joint-heirs with Jesus Christ" their Lord to the great inheritance—to the oath-bound promise made to Abraham, that through them all the families of the earth shall be blessed.

Henry F. Gehant went to Galesburg Monday on business connected with the real estate department of the bank.

On Sunday evening about 70 of the younger folks gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Barr to entertain in honor of their daughter, who with her husband was visiting them. The first enjoyment was the sleigh ride out from town and it was surely a treat. Arriving at the home the crowd was comfortably seated and prepared for the evening's entertainment—progressive euchre. Each person drew a number and rank and the game proceeded until 32 of them had been played. The winners were Mrs. Eddie Henry and Leslie Derr, and the losers were Miss Kathryn Bernardin and Louis Chaon. Refreshments were served and much relished as was also the splendid music by Barr's orchestra.

MOBS MURDER REBELS

Chang Yang, His Brother and Secretary Victims.

Premier Yuan Made a Marquis as a Mark of Appreciation of Loyalty to Throne.

Mukden, Manchuria, Jan. 26.—Chang Yang, one of the rebel leaders, was murdered here, and simultaneously a mob of assassins attacked his residence, where they killed his brother and his secretary. A number of other murders were committed the same evening.

Peking, China, Jan. 26.—The imperial government has decided, apparently, not to take the initiative of seeking a battle with the revolutionary forces. The imperial generals have been ordered to await the advance of the republican troops, but military preparations are proceeding actively throughout northern China.

Premier Yuan Shi Kai continues in favor with the court. He has been created a marquis. Prince Chun, the ex-regent, informed him the throne desired in this way to mark its appreciation of his loyalty and labor in its interest.

William J. Calhoun, the American minister to China, is proceeding to Nanking, the headquarters of the republican revolutionists. No reason for the journey has been announced, but it is thought Mr. Calhoun will have a conference with Sun Yat Sen, the provisional president of the republic, though for what purpose is not known.

CHURCHILL INSIST ON BELFAST TALK

Ulster Hall Demand Waived, But Firm on Home Rule Meet.

SERIOUS TROUBLE IS FEARED

Prospects of Fight Bringing Adherents of Both Factions to City—Unionist Press Predicting an Armed Rebellion as Result.

London, Jan. 26.—Winston Spencer Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, has expressed his determination to speak in Belfast on February 8 for home rule and the Unionist press is loud in its warnings that serious fighting is likely to result. Lord Churchill in a letter to Lord Londonderry, a Unionist leader and former viceroy of Ireland, has asserted that he is not determined to speak in Ulster hall, as at first planned, but that he will insist on speaking in that city at some place on the date announced.

Advised to Stay Away.

The Belfast harbor board has added its protest against the meeting to that made by other Unionists. It has said that February 9 will not be a "convenient day" for the first lord of the admiralty to inspect the Belfast docks.

FARMS FOR SALE.

No. 1—A farm of 230 acres in Stephenson county, Ill., high state of cultivation. House of 9 rooms, one of the finest bank barns in the county; triple corn crib with stone basement for hog house, very large; grainery and other outbuildings, all in fine shape. This farm has about 80 acres of very heavy timber. The lumber would pay for the land it stands on, as there is a great deal of saw timber. School house on farm; 1-2 mile to large creamery, and 2 miles to another, where they make Swiss cheese. Four miles to town. I might consider a residence in Dixon in the deal. Price $120 per acre.

Farm No. 2—Farm of 255 acres in Stephenson county, Ill. Very large house, one of the largest bank barns in the county, 46x96; large, hog house, large double corn crib, scales in scale house, small bank barn, spring and spring water within 50 feet of the house; good fences, windmill, fine orchard; close to school. Has about 25 acres of fine timber, mostly hard maple; close to creamery and cheese factory. This is one of the best improved stock farms in the country. I will consider a residence in Dixon in this deal.

Farm No. 3—I have a very fine 160 acre farm in the famous Pecos Valley of New Mexico, near Roswell. Land as level as a floor, sloping to the southeast at the rate of about 10 feet to the mile. Every acre of it can be irrigated without any leveling of land. Five miles from a thriving town. Very large artesian well about one mile away and many others nearby. Price $30 per acre. I would consider a house and lot in the deal.

For Sale. Sale Mills, at the Telegraph office. 55tf

As farmers in Canada are going broke and land prices tumbling no one will buy it. I have talked and advertised for ten years that only a third or less of either of the Dakotas was good for farming and the good part of S. D. too high to buy. The last two crops show what is best. Cavalier county had crops in 1910 that paid for the land and also in 1911. 1912 promises much better and I will still give you a chance to pay for a farm with one crop. As an investment land here will pay better interest on $100 an acre than land in Ill. at the prices it is selling at as there so much of the rent has to be paid out for taxes, improvements and insurance. Having been here over ten years I predict Hundred Dollar land here in five to seven years. The farmers here are buying it and they are making money faster than any other farmers in the world.

GREAT RECORD

Hard to Duplicate It in Dixon
Scores of representative citizens of Dixon are testifying for Doan's Kidney Pills. Such a record of local endorsement is unequalled in modern times. This public statement made by a citizen many that have preceded it and the hundreds that will follow. Read it:

C. J. Kirham, Nachusa, Ill., says: "I suffered from a steady, dull pain across my back but I had no idea it was caused by disordered kidneys. Finally a friend advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills and I got a box at Leake Bros. Co.'s Drug Store. Their use relieved me and improved my condition in every way. I know that Doan's Kidney Pills act as represented."

(Statement given April 14, 1909)

CONFIRMED PROOF
When Mr. Kirkman was interviewed on January 4, 1910 he said: "I can still recommend Doan's Kidney Pills in the highest terms. Since I publicly recommended this remedy other members of my family have used it and benefit has always been received."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

WOMAN TRIES TO KILL SELF

Mrs. Creel Takes Poison After Seeing "Vanity Fair" in Picture Show—Sees Herself in Characters of Becky Sharp.

Springfield, Jan. 26.—Mrs. Grace Creel visited a moving-picture show and saw in herself the characters of Becky Sharp, as portrayed in the production of "Vanity Fair." She returned to her home, a short distance from the theater, and attempted to end her life by taking poison. She will recover. Mrs. Creel says she was deserted by her husband on several occasions and found it difficult to earn enough to care for herself and child.

Attacks the Entire Auto Law.

Springfield, Jan. 26.—Secretary of State Rose received briefs which will be filed with the supreme court in the suit to test the validity of the automobile law enacted at the last session of the legislature. Though the case was based first only on the part of the law providing that all chauffeurs must have a state license, the validity of the whole act is now attacked. The suit is against R. Earl Sargent, professional chauffeur in Chicago, who refused to procure a license. The Chauffeurs' association of Chicago is said to be backing Sargent.

Bankers Against State Curb.

Chicago, Jan. 26.—The executive council of the Illinois Bankers' association by a vote of 13 to 11 defeated the movement to offer a bill to the legislature to place all banks of Illinois under state supervision, directed at the private banks. The sessions, held at the Blackstone, were marked by a hard and bitter fight to keep the proposition from even a vote and by frequent parliamentary clashes that ended with its defeat.

Arson Suspects Implicate Merchant.

Sterling, Jan. 26.—Joseph Gookel and Grant Willett, accused of setting fire to the store of G. W. Andrews at Alpha, assert they were hired to commit arson by the proprietor of a rival concern. Gookel and Willett were captured by Andrews and the police while they were applying kerosene and a torch to the store. Andrews had received an anonymous letter saying that the store was to be fired.

Arrested in Seeking to Wed.

Kewanee, Jan. 26.—Relatives received word that Peter D. Oleslager, a widower who went to Holland recently to marry, had been arrested there. While he was getting a wedding license the authorities discovered he had not complied with all requirements of army service before he left Holland twelve years ago. He has five small children in Kewanee.

First Illini Students Invited.

Urbana, Jan. 26.—Efforts are being made to assemble all of the 502 men and women now living who attended the University of Illinois, then the Illinois Industrial university, during the period from 1868 to 1872 inclusive for the reunion here June 12 at the forty-first annual commencement. Those were the first four years of the university.

Master Plumbers Suggest Laws.

Decatur, Jan. 26.—Members of the Illinois Master Plumbers' association are in favor of legislation that will establish two examining boards and one state board of inspection, one of the examining boards to have jurisdiction over Chicago and the other over those in the rest of the state.

Hidden Dynamite Is Found.

Elgin, Jan. 26.—Fifty pounds of dynamite in a water-soaked wooden box were found under a corn shock, near the village of Gilberts, eight miles from Elgin. Several robberies and hold-ups have taken place there recently. The explosive was found by Fred Rasmussen, a farmer.

Hold Train to Get Fuel.

Sterling, Jan. 26.—Twenty-five citizens of Harmon stopped a train and forcibly attempted to switch off a car of coal to relieve the fuel famine there. Trainmen dissuaded them and arranged for coal to be sent for temporary relief.

Farmer Takes His Own Life.

Champaign, Jan. 26.—Simpson W. Frame, a Champaign county farmer, committed suicide when he blew off the top of his head with a shotgun. His health had produced temporary insanity.

Pastor Is Sued By Wife.

Elgin, Jan. 26.—Rev. William T. McGinn was sued here for a divorce by Mrs. Minnie Brady McGinn, prominent as an elocutionist, who charges desertion.

Barkeeper Kills Riverman.

Calro, Jan. 26.—Charles McCann, a saloonkeeper, fired five shots into the body of William Lambert, a riverman, here, killing him.

York Acquitted of Murder.

Ottawa, Jan. 26.—Lincoln York was acquitted by a jury of the murder of Joseph Dillon of La Salle on October 5, 1911.
